

Anderson, Ind., July 26, 1912.

To the Board of Directors,
Gospel Trumpet Company.

Dear Brethren:

I regret the necessity of having to offer herewith my resignation as General Superintendent of the Gospel Trumpet Company.
Most potent among the circumstances that necessitate
my resignation is a pressing financial obligation.
If I can secure employment that will not necessitate my leaving Anderson, I should be glad, if you so desire, to continue such responsibilities as I am able to perform. In view of the services that I shall be able to render, you may lend me such assistance by way of maintenance as you think proper and right.

Respectfully submitted,

D. V. Teasley.
